

GOD: Make an Eternal Difference

My relationship with Christ is radical- overflowing with the Holy Spirit!
I seek opportunities to exercise my gifts of generosity and teaching.
The Lord flows through me- however he sees fit, I'm willing.
Seek wisdom and understanding above all else.
My prayer life is thriving, it includes listening as much as I speak.
Pray for purity, salvation for others, needs of others, leaders, friends.
Integrity is doing what's right always, even when no one is watching.
Simplicity allows me to give and serve others more. Guard it.
Share often how God is working in my life.
Be in word and prayer during idle time. Make most of opportunities.

FAMILY: God trusted me with my family. Prepare them for eternity!
They are precious. Bring the best out of them.
Micheleen is my greatest inspiration. I strive to be all she deserves.
We serve the Lord in our community and missions as a family.
We have fun- play, travel, give and serve together.
My family learns from my actions, not my words.
I actively relate to the kids through their interests such as sports.

LOVE: Love my neighbors (enemies). They are significant to God.
Listen, understand and do not judge. Meet needs. Encourage.
Overwhelm enemies with kindness. What would Jesus do?
Bless, help and serve others radically.
Boldly share Christ with others. Pray for them.

GENEROSITY: God owns it all. He is extravagant, so is our giving.
Greatest blessing is to bless others. Holy Spirit lead me.
We meet the needs of others through service and sharing.
Jesus is our master and he trusts us. We give more than we save.

HEALTH: Have fun living a healthy and active lifestyle.
Eat healthy, fresh, fun. Cooking the right foods, right portions.
What is one thing I can do to be healthier today?

BUSINESS: My work is simple. An extension of my life. It is a platform for me to do more of what I do. I lead because I follow
I strive to give my best to those I serve.
